

WHERE YOU

BELONG

Five Signs You've Found Your College Family

KENT STATE UNIVERSITY

At Kent State, we believe that choosing the right college gives you a career edge and makes you feel like a vital part of a bigger community. A place that is ready to help you be more yourself than you thought possible. A place where you belong from the start. Dig through the following tips to see how you can build a list of schools that will make you feel ...

WELCOMED.

To truly thrive in college, you need a place where you're empowered to be anything—any way you want to. Explore each school's campus culture to see exactly how you can get out, get involved and get that “this is the place” feeling.

For instance, Kent State students often talk about how they feel a sense of belonging—that there's a place and a purpose for every individual. With 330+ clubs and organizations, international students from more than 100 countries, personalized academic resources, and award-winning student services ... Flashes fit at Kent State.

PREPARED.

The right learning tools in college could vault you to a life of career success. That's why it's vital to take stock of each school's commitment to making your degree work for you outside of the classroom. Take a look at these Kent State stats: 370+ world-class academic programs. 55,000+ internship opportunities with access to world-class career opportunities in nearby Cleveland, Akron and Canton. Experiential learning is the name of the game here, where you won't just explore your world, you'll explore the world—and be ready to take your place in it.

SUPPORTED.

The right school will go the extra mile to assure you have everything you need for personal success.

Checking out each college's scholarship opportunities and academic resources will give you a good gauge of how student-focused it really is. In fact, advocating for individual success is a cornerstone of the Kent State experience, which is why $80 million in scholarships is offered to first-year students annually. Students also benefit from Student Success Programs, which provide co-curricular and leadership opportunities. And a worldwide network of 280,000+ alumni is always waiting to help graduates find out what's next.

INSPIRED.

Few things can form a tight-knit college family like shared passions. Consider schools that let you truly immerse yourself in your studies, with cutting-edge facilities and learning opportunities that propel new ideas forward. One of Kent State's greatest strengths is our spirit of collaboration, no matter the subject at hand. Our interdisciplinary Design Innovation (DI) Hub brings students from all over campus to solve everyday problems with creativity and ingenuity. Plus, our renowned undergraduate research programs turn heads every year as students and faculty break new ground together in today's biggest fields. Have something you want to build or test? See just how far we can help you go.

ENGAGED.

While a campus can bring you the comforts of home, explore the nearby town or city to see what lies beyond your door. Your most meaningful times could come from adventuring with new friends. Speaking of adventure, there's so much to do in award-winning downtown Kent, just steps away from our campus. Experience beloved locally-owned eateries, live music, seasonal festivals, and outdoor activities such as kayaking the Cuyahoga River and hiking nearby trails. And just a short drive away is downtown Cleveland, where you can check out professional sports, concerts, world-class museums and Lake Erie beaches.
